Who we are

David Street School is a contributing primary school with a roll of approximately 500 students, located in the rural Waikato township of Morrinsville centred 20 minutes from Hamilton.

We are a community of courageous lifelong learners.

Our happy empowering learning culture is built around our vision, values, learner assets, and developing local curriculum. These shape all professional and learner behaviours and successful school wide outcomes.

Our school is well resourced and well supported by our community including our iwi, Ngāti Hauā.

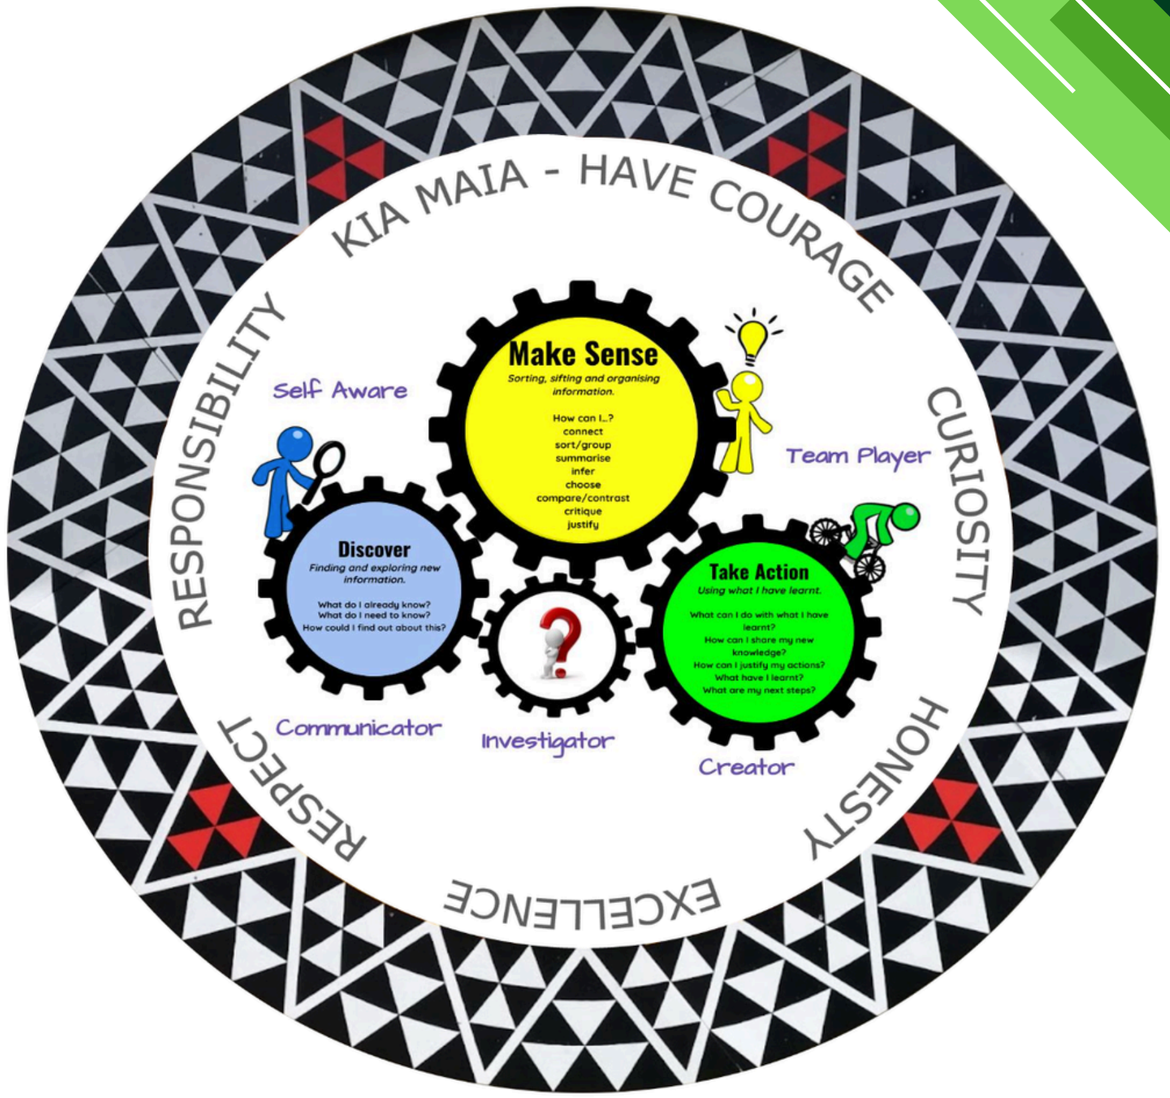
Our children are highly engaged learners who share a commitment to demonstrating our values and learner assets in their daily lives.

You may be interested to have a look at our school website and facebook pages for further insights into the daily life and times of David Street School.

At David Street School we are a Community of Courageous Learners who live our values.

We develop agentic learners who utilise a number of tools for learning including:

- School Values - Curiosity, Honesty, Excellence, Respect & Responsibility
- Learner Assets - Self Aware, Team Player, Investigator, Communicator, Creator
- The Learning Process - Wonder, Discover, Make Sense & Take Action
- Curriculum pathways
- Assessment for learning practices
- Partnerships
- Local contexts



Our Structure

We are organised into four teams: Kahikatea (Yr0-2), Kauri (Yr3-4), Kowhai (Yr5-6), and the High Health and Learning Support teams working across 21 classrooms. We have a variety of collaborative and single cell classrooms.

We have a united, successful and collaborative staff including 3 senior leaders, 3 team leaders, SENCO, 32 full and part time teachers, 14 learning support staff, 3 administration staff, 1 librarian, 1 caretaker, and 12 before and after school care staff.

Every staff member views themselves as a learner, and actively engages in a variety of targeted individual, team, school and CoL professional learning opportunities. Both informal and organised professional learning conversations are a feature of the school, and these include organised professional learning groups occurring during classroom release, funded, in part, by our highly supportive board of trustees.
